Week 1: Project Ideas

- Web application for local thrift stores and second-hand shopping events; Users can like and add tags to stores, can leave reviews with photos of items bought there; Can RSVP to the shopping events and leave feedback; Can share social media posts of items; A mix of social media and review site

- Web application for building habits and routines; People can invite their friends to compete in keeping up with their habits and being at the top of the leadership board; Can send messages of encouragement to friends; Can build community with others who have similar desired goals/habits on a forum for that specific focus